

ASCC'S 2005 CVM AUTOPARK RALLYE SERIES
SERIES CLASSES AND RULES

NOVICE CLASS:

- Open to anyone who has never rallied before.
- Also open to inexperienced teams and/or teams that have not experienced success in their prior efforts.
- Trophies will be provided to top finishing teams (1 trophy for every five cars) for each event.
- Year-end series trophies will be provided to the top three (3) finishers.
- Only (1) Driver and (1) Navigator are allowed per car. The Rallyemaster may sometimes grant exceptions to this rule.

EXPERT CLASS:

- Participants must run in this class if you have won more than six (6) individual events in Novice Class in the last two years.
- Participants must run in this class if you have won the Novice Class year-end trophy.
- More experienced teams are encouraged to run in this class.
- Trophies will be provided to top finishers (1 trophy for every five cars) for each event.
- Year-end series trophies will be provided to the top three (3) finishers.
- Only (1) Driver and (1) Navigator are allowed per car.

NON-COMP:

- Generally, this class is for teams with more than (1) Driver and (1) Navigator in the car. Also for any teams that only run rallies occasionally or do not wish to compete. ASCC participation points will be accrued but Rallye Series competition points will not apply. For Rallye Series points competitors, this could be your "throw away" if you wish to have extra passengers in your car.

SCORING, RULES ETC.:

- Only up to five (5) individual events will count for year end points. After five (5) events, lowest scores will be dropped.
- Only the Driver and Navigator will accrue Rallye Series points.
- Rallye teams must run in the class of the most experienced partner.
- Points received in different classes will not be combined. Teams should declare the class in which they wish to compete for the entire series at the time of the first Rallye that they attend.
- Rallyemasters will receive first place points for setting up one, and only one, Rallye per year.
- All members with Rallye experience are encouraged to help with checking a Rallye and/or attending a checkpoint. ASCC participation points will be awarded to members who do so. Checking works well if you know that the date of a Rallye conflicts with your schedule and you will be unable to compete.
- Any questions or conflicts about a Rallye or rules on the day of the event will be dealt with by the following three (3) person committee:
  - 1 – One of the two Rallye Chairs (Barb or Ken Taggart)
  - 2 – One of the two Rallyemasters for the event.
  - 3 – A member of the Rallye Committee who is present, impartial to the dispute (if possible), and selected by the Rallye Chair.

RALLYE COMMITTEE:

Barb Taggart	Marsha Guthoehrlein
Ken Taggart	Dick Guthoehrlein
Jim Cooper	Wayne Steigerwalt
Vonnie Cooper

- Only one set of instructions will be given to a team.
- Drivers must carry adequate insurance and attest to that fact by signing the standard SCCA waiver at every event.
